

Please do not pass any regulations that will weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. We used to receive as many as five or six telemarketing calls a day, a great aggravation. Now it is very rare to receive one. Telemarketing calls were especially aggravating at meal times.